Le mot de la présidente

Le printemps est enfin arrivé en France – avec de graves inondations dues à la neige et aux pluies d’une ampleur anormale durant l’hiver et même au printemps. Raison de plus pour attendre avec impatience en France le solstice d’été, qui sera marqué une fois de plus par la Fête de la Musique. Cet événement, créé à Paris le 21 juin 1982, se produit maintenant à l’échelle mondiale: plus de 450 villes célébrent la Fête de la Musique dans environ 120 pays sur 5 continents. Cette grande manifestation populaire, qui comprend souvent toute un gamme de styles musicaux, valorise les pratiques musicales des professionnels et des amateurs. Toutes sortes de lieux sont investis ce soir-là: les parcs et les rues, les églises et les musées, les restaurants et les bars... C’est une fête très joyeuse qui allie souvent la danse à la musique.

L’Alliance Française de Santa Rosa se met au diapason: le samedi 22 juin vous pourrez vous régaler des chansons de La Guinguette (voir l’annonce en page 1 de ce bulletin) et tournoyer sur la piste de danse si le cœur vous en dit. Cet événement sera suivi le dimanche 14 juillet de notre Fête de la Bastille (voir l’annonce ci-dessous). A bientôt donc pour fêter joyeusement ensemble l’arrivée de l’été!
