Refreshments and snacks will be provided.

We hope you enjoy the program!

Susan Witt-Butler balances two careers in music: performing and teaching. Her performance experience includes the San Francisco Opera Chorus, San Francisco Spring Opera, Banff Festival of the Arts, and Opera Barga, Barga, Italy. She has performed as soprano soloist with the San Francisco Ballet, Oakland Symphony Chorus, Pacific Mozart Ensemble, and presently with Castles and Concerts, a touring company. She has recorded works of 21st century composer Frank LaRocca, as well as with the Pennsylvania Pro Musica and Lucasfilm. She presently serves on the vocal faculty at Sonoma State University, and is Professor Emerita of Voice and Opera, California State University, East Bay and maintains a private studio in Santa Rosa, CA. Susan speaks French and loves the French culture and the lilting of the spoken language. She has sung in châteaux and cathedrals along the Dordogne River and loves visiting France.

Mary Beard has a BA in music from Stanford University and also studied voice in Stuttgart, Germany. She currently coaches under Thelma Dare Ahner of Santa Rosa. She has taught voice and piano in Santa Rosa for more than 30 years and her students include singers now with the San Francisco and Los Angeles Operas. She was soloist with the Santa Rosa Christian Science Church for eight years and has performed German lieder concerts throughout the Bay Area and Germany. She has sung a variety of opera roles at Sonoma State University, SRJC, Santa Rosa Players and Cinnabar Theater. She is a member of the Music Teachers' Association and is currently President of the Redwood Empire Chapter of the National Association of Teachers of Singing.

When Mary's oldest son married into a French family 11 years ago, she began to focus on furthering her knowledge of the French language and culture. She and her husband travel each year to France to visit their son and his family. She is a regular in the AF advanced conversation course and has wanted for some time to prepare a recital of all-French music as a benefit for the AF. She and Susan looked for a variety of styles of French song for the program, primarily from the last century and a half. Most of the songs are, of course, by French composers, but two of them are by a local composer from Santa Rosa, Charlotte Ellis.

Please, come and join us !

Message de la Présidente

Dear Members,

Let me begin by saying that we had a great start this year at the Alliance. Our dinner-conference at La Gare was an enormous success. We again would like to thank Anne Prah-Perochon for her excellent presentation: Tragédie à Vaux-le-Vicomte. I would like to take this opportunity to express our gratitude to the Praplan Family for making that night event what it was. We look forward to holding future similar events at La Gare.

I am very pleased to announce our upcoming fundraiser: an Evening of French Songs with Susan Witt-Butler and Mary Beard. We hope to see you all at this occasion; please feel free to spread the word! You can find additional details on the front page.

Our French Language School will be starting its second session of the year on February 27th. The new six-week format seems to be well received, thanks to Anne Guével-Goldstone's hard work and dedication.

The much anticipated survey prepared by Hervé and Jérôme is almost ready. It will be presented online, in an electronic format and details on how to access it will be sent by email. We would really appreciate if you could take a few minutes to fill it out. If you prefer to receive a hard copy, please let us know by calling 707-543-8151 and we will gladly send you one.

I believe our Alliance is a wonderful organization which does a great job promoting the French language and culture. We are very fortunate to have a remarkable membership which allows us to work together in good consideration and friendship with the spirit of:

“Je travaille pour l'Alliance et j'aime ça!”

Faisons connaissance avec Bénédicte Moens

C'est à une belle histoire d'amour que nous devons la présence parmi nous de Bénédicte Moens. Née et élevée à Roubaix dans le Nord de la France, elle y a fait la connaissance chez sa marraine d'un jeune Américain de la Californie du sud venu passer une année en France par l'intermédiaire de l'AFS (American Field Service). Elle avait 14 ans et Jon en avait 16; ils sont devenus amis et se considéraient comme des cousins "à la mode de Bretagne" (c'est-à-dire, pas des vrais cousins). Quand Bénédicte avait 19 ans, Jon est revenu passer un an en France après avoir terminé son B.S. in Engineering à l'Université de Californie à Santa Cruz, et ils ont commencé à sortir ensemble. L'année suivante, séparés à nouveau, ils ont entretenu une correspondance régulière, puis se sont retrouvés une fois de plus quand Jon est venu passer l'été en France. Bénédicte, qui n'était pas enchantée de sa première année dans une école d'infirmières après ses études secondaires, a décidé de partir aux Etats-Unis avec Jon pour y poursuivre ses études. C'était en 1985, et en attendant que Jon trouve du travail, ils se sont installés dans la maison de ses parents à Geyserville. Bénédicte a commencé à suivre des cours à Santa Rosa Junior College, et... ils se sont mariés quelques mois plus tard.

Ils sont ensuite allés habiter à Mountain View, où Jon avait trouvé un travail, et Bénédicte a commencé à faire des cours de français à Berlitz, tout en poursuivant ses études d'abord à De Anza Junior College, puis à California State University à San José. Une fois diplômée (B.S. in International Business, avec un "minor" en langues étrangères) elle a travaillé à la BNP (Banque Nationale de Paris, qui s'appelle maintenant Paribas) à San Francisco, puis dans une autre banque à Silicon Valley.

En 1992, Jon a trouvé un poste à Healdsburg, et le jeune couple (avec leur fils aîné Rémy) est revenu avec joie s'installer dans le comté de Sonoma. C'est là qu'est né leur second fils Joël. Bénédicte a d'abord travaillé quelque temps dans une banque, mais quelques mois plus tard on lui a offert un poste de professeur de français à Sonoma Country Day School. Elle y a passé 7 ans, mettant sur pied tout un programme d'enseignement du français tout en continuant à donner des cours particuliers. Maintenant elle fait les cours de français à Guadalupe Private School à Santa Rosa, le cours French for Travel dans le cadre de Community Education à SRJC, et depuis septembre dernier plusieurs cours à notre Alliance – par suite d'une rencontre fortuite avec Anne Goldstone "entre deux portes" à SRJC en mai 2005. Quant à Jon, il travaille maintenant à Agilent à Santa Rosa.

Toute la famille est très sportive: basket et foot pour Rémy et Joël, triathlon pour Jon et foot de salle pour Bénédicte. Autre activité importante: les voyages, notamment en France à peu près tous les 2 ans. Quand ils y vont, c'est pour voir la famille dans le Nord, en Alsace et près de Paris, mais ils en profitent aussi pour aller dans d'autres régions ou même dans d'autres pays comme la Suisse. Jon parle très bien français, et les jeunes s'y mettent, grâce en particulier aux séjours qu'ils font parfois sans leurs parents dans leur famille en France.

Nous sommes très contents d'accueillir Bénédicte dans notre équipe de professeurs à la Maison de l'Alliance, et souhaitons bonne continuation à cette belle petite famille.

Dans la cuisine avec Christine Piccin

Moroccan cuisine blends native Berber cooking with influences of the French, Spanish and Arab kitchens. The flavors are truly brilliant, sometimes surprising and always delicious. This simple salad is a good example, and perfect for the season.

Orange and Olive Salad

makes 8 servings

- 15 black Mediterranean olives such as kalamata
- 4 teaspoons white balsamic or white wine vinegar
- 1/2 teaspoon cumin
- 1/4 teaspoon paprika
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 8 blood oranges (or substitute 6 large regular oranges)

Seed, slice then coarsely dice the olives. In a large bowl, mix them with the vinegar, cumin, paprika and salt. Stir well to blend.

Cut peels from oranges, removing all white pith. Slice oranges and add them to the olive mixture, folding gently with a rubber spatula so as not to break up the oranges. Fan the orange slices on a platter; sprinkle olives and dressing over.

Learning From Paris

A class on the wonders of Paris will be held at Santa Rosa Junior College on three evenings in May.

Each session will include slides on the history of architecture and development of Paris, as well as wine and cheese tasting from different regions of France. The course will explore the public places, markets, cafes, boulevards and neighborhoods that make Paris the city we all love. It is a class for those who are planning their first trip to Paris and those who have been to Paris many times.

The class will be taught by Steve Rabinowitsh, who has traveled to Paris numerous times and has led walking tours of Paris. He has also given a lecture at the Alliance Francaise on "Modern Architecture of Paris". He will be joined by Rick Theis who has over 25 years of experience in the wine industry. They have taught the class for the past 6 years and continue to add new Paris experiences to the course content.

The class will be held on May 10, 17 and 24 from 7 to 9pm. The cost of the course is $79, which includes wine and cheese tasting. To register, contact Santa Rosa Junior College Community Education at 527-4372 or www.santarosa.edu/cmmunityed

Albert Quentin (Jean Gabin) and his wife Suzanne (Suzanne Flon) run a small hotel in Tigreville, on the Normandy coast. A veteran of the far east campaigns, Albert has become a drunkard by nostalgia of his past years. Yet, during the heavy bombings of June 1944, he swears that he will no longer drink if they survive. Albert has been righteous for years, until one night when he meets a strange young man, Gabriel (Jean-Paul Belmondo) who stays at the hotel and spends the evening drinking in the bar across the street. He and Albert soon become friends, but Suzanne fears that Gabriel is going to take her husband back to his old demons.

More than 40 years after its release in 1962, this monument of French cinema remains unequalled. It might even get better with time! Michel Audiard has done a tremendous job adapting Antoine Blondin's novel while Henri Verneuil, one of France's best directors ever, has surpassed himself. Un singe en hiver is a true collection of anthology scenes, hilarious replicas and moments of intense emotion... Un chef d'oeuvre!

Cercle littéraire

Le 23 mars nous nous réunirons au centre de l'Alliance pour discuter Le Petit Garçon de Philippe Labro. Ce gamin a non seulement des parents mais aussi trois frères et trois sœurs, une famille fort nombreuse pour le temps et le milieu puisque les enfants sont tous nés dans le Paris d'avant-guerre.

A l'époque dont il s'agit nous trouvons tout ce monde dans la vallée du Tarn, habitant une "villa" au bord de l'Aveyron et jouissant d'une existence idyllique, non loin de Montauban, ville natale de l'auteur. Ainsi sommes-nous en plein dans son pays et sans doute aussi dans la guerre que ses personnages auront bientôt à traverser sur le qu-vive.

Ce que nous pouvons espérer en plus c'est qu'il y a eu beaucoup de braves gens tels que nos protagonistes qui ont ouvert cœur et porte à des visiteurs pourchassés et dépourvus de refuge. Pour la famille Haut-Soleil est un hiatus tant inoubliable qu'inquiétant, soit alarmant, entre le Paris d'avant et après. Nous avons de quoi dialoguer.

A bientôt.
